

Welcome to Jakarta!

Jakarta is the biggest city in Indonesia that also serves as its capital. Various cultures, culinary, and cultural heritages from East and West merge into the most prominent Indonesian elements.

This country has more than 17.000 islands with a total population more than 200 million that consists of 300 different ethnic groups and 200 local languages. All of those diversities can be encountered in Jakarta.

Important information on Soekarno Hatta International Airport Arrival and Departure

Code: CGK
Address: 601 Tangerang, Banten, Jakarta 19101, Indonesia
Number of Terminals: 3
State Dialing Code: +62
Time zone: GMT +7:00
Phone: (62-21) 5505074; (62-21) 5505002

There are three terminals:

Terminal 1

Overview – Terminal 1 in Soekarno-Hatta serves domestic flights operated by Lion Air, Sriwijaya Air, Citilink and other local airlines. Its arrival and departure hall are located on the same level.

When on a short domestic trip, you can leave your car in the long-term airport parking area for Rp 70,000 ($ 7.20) per night. An extra Rp 40,000 ($ 4.20) gets you a carwash service from the parking staff.

Opportunities during flight delays

The Jakarta Post Travel decided that the minimalist yet dandy Food Cetera, located between Terminal 1B and 1C, is the best spot to wile away the hours in Terminal 1.

Food Cetera offers plenty of menu choices, from Japanese suki and kebabs to Singapore snow ice and Indonesian dessert es doger. Aside from the 26 food stalls, it also has a prayer room, cable TV and meeting rooms in the air-conditioned area.

Pampering spot

Have a relaxing massage at the Blue Sky executive lounge, next to Food Cetera. The lounge is available at the tempting price of Rp 80,000 ($ 8.20) for a 60-minute massage or Rp 75,000 ($7.80) for an all you can eat buffet.

Free electrical plugs to charge your phone and gadgets are located in the Red Lounge food court at the end of Terminal 1B.

The food court also houses a 24-hour convenience store, a prayer room and several food stalls such as Mandai, Sederhana Saiyo and Rotiboy.

A mini shopping arcade with various shops such as Ananda bookstore, Batik Keris and Parang Kencana batik shops is located in Terminal 1C.

Information Center and Customer service counters are located at the center of Terminal 1B.

ATM

There is an ATM Center with Bank Rakyat Indonesia (BRI), Bank Negara Indonesia (BNI), Bank Central Asia (BCA) and Mandiri machines in Terminal 1A. Another ATM center with Bukopin, Danamon and BRI machines is located in the Red lounge at the end of Terminal 1B.

It is hard to find money exchange counters in Terminal 1, please prepare some rupiah beforehand if you are going to take flights from there.

Terminal 2

Overview – Soekarno-Hatta’s terminal 2 serves domestic and international flights operated by an assortment of airlines including Garuda Indonesia, Singapore Airlines and KLM. Its departure hall is located on level two and its arrival hall on level one.

Opportunities during flight delays

You can find a relatively new fountain and garden area next to Terminal 2F to pass time by reading a book or simply enjoying some fresh air. The area houses ticket booths for travel shuttles, including Damri buses that serve the airport and Greater Jakarta. Just in front of the fountain is the waiting area for those who want to continue their trip by shuttle.

Pampering spot

The pampering area is located right at the end of the departure hall. One of the good places is the Taman Sari Spa, which offers massage packages and food. There are several reflexology places in the airport.

Internet Access, free flow drinks and buffet snacks are available at Soetta Executive lounge, at terminal 2D. It also has an arrival, transit and departure handling service.

The airport's transit hotel, located on the third floor, right in the center of Terminal 2, provides short-stay services. Cocktails are available in the jet lounge bar that overlooks the runway.

Terminal 3

Overview - The youngest terminal is home to Airasia and Tiger Airways flights. Unlike its older siblings, Terminal 3 is more modern, spacious and a lot less confusing. Lounges, restaurants and shopping arcades are located at the front of the departure hall.

The Officer In Charge (OIC) office is located in second floor, next to the nursery room, smoking area and health room.

Opportunities during flight delays

A playground is located on the first floor in case you are travelling with children. Laras Resto offers traditional and international food at reasonable prices.

Pampering spot

The massage parlor is on the second floor, adjacent to the Monas lounge and De'Green lounge.

Its shopping arcade houses a Keris Department Store and eateries such as Diplomat Café, Baso Ino, Laras Resto and Hikaru Cafe. It also has an ATM center, which provides Mandiri, Bukopin, BCA, and Panin machines, located on the second floor.

Open lounges are equipped with comfy couches, free electrical plugs and cable TV.

An exclusive transportation service is available for reservation in Terminal 3. Official metered taxi White Horse and Tiara Express provide services using big shuttle cars that can accommodate up to six passengers.

Airport Facilities

Food & Beverages

KFC, A&W, Starbucks, Dunkin Donuts and McDonalds are in the airport's food court and offer burgers, fries, chicken, coffee, and carbonated soft drinks.

The airport hotel located above the second terminal has fine Indonesian (Cockpit Restaurant) and international cuisine (Chinese and Japanese). The Jet Lounge Bar also offers a wide selection of snacks and beverages. These overlook the airport runway and diners can watch planes arrive and depart.

Hotel

Jakarta Airport Hotel can be accessed easily from Terminal 2E. You only have to access the lift to Level 2 of Departure Hall and you will directly see the entrance to the hotel. Look for the sign 'Transit Hotel'

Lippo Village / Lippo Karawaci

The UPH Global Campus is located in Lippo Village, which is a very unique city on the outskirts of Jakarta. It is nicknamed The Incomparable City, since there is nothing like it in Indonesia. The area boasts a clean environment, world standard planning, infrastructure, and town management. There is a highway adjacent to the city as well as high quality in-town buses within Lippo Village.

Founded in 1993, today Lippo Village is home to over 50,000 residents with far more coming into the area each day for education and employment. Over 12,000 students are educated in the numerous schools from pre-K to tertiary level, making the city a very vibrant educational hub for young people.

Lippo Village is very well known to be a safe and secure area for the entire family. The city has very low crime rates as a result of excellent security making it much less worrisome for its residents. Almost all the housing in Lippo Village is in gated housing estates, with over 60 of these estates (Tamans in Bahasa Indonesia). These estates have security at the front gate who monitor those who enter the housing area to keep residents safe.

UPH Profile

UPH is situated on 3,000 acres in Lippo Village Township. The village is home to more than 50,000 residents and provides employment for over 47,000 workers in retail, health care, hospitality and educational fields. The Village community provides a pleasant environment for 15,000 students, ranging from elementary to university level. It is a place where English is used in daily interaction both inside and outside the classroom.

Established in 1994 by Pelita Harapan Foundation/Yayasan Universitas Pelita Harapan (YUPH), Universitas Pelita Harapan is committed to the noble industry of education. This commitment is reflected in its professional management, excellent faculties, curricula, and facilities. The University also offers a wide-range of scholarships and financial assistance packages.

In the journey toward true excellence in education, the Universitas Pelita Harapan vision and mission statement serve as fundamental guides in the ongoing development of Total Transformational Education.

Based on Christian principles, University Pelita Harapan aspires to provide excellent education through Global Best Practices, Professional Management, Strategic Global Partnerships, and a People-Oriented Approach. Through distinctive emphases that nurture leadership, communication skills, and attitude building, UPH has established a strong reputation for its pursuit of knowledge, faith and character development.

Rising student enrollment has shaped UPH into a multi-cultural campus, with students from more than 15 diverse nations, including the United States, Russia, China, Korea, and Germany. The learning environment is supported by excellent instructor-student ratios in all disciplines.
